Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

Fort Worth Community Credit Union

What we do

How does Fort Worth Community Credit Union protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings. We restrict access to non public personal information about you to only our employees who need to know that information in order to provide products or services to you.

How does Fort Worth Community Credit Union collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- Open an account
- Pay your bills
- Apply for a loan
- Make a wire transfer
- Show your driver's license

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes- information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for non affiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else?

Your choice will apply to everyone on your account.
